

BROOKFIELD

U. A. Clark, an Old Resident, Died Saturday.

U. A. Clark died Saturday morning after a long period of ill health, at the age of 80 years and about six months. He was born July 12, 1836, the son of the late Deacon Uriah A. and Betsey (Lambson) Clark, and was the last of his father's family. He is survived by his widow and one daughter, Miss Anna Clark. Mr. Clark will be missed by a large circle of friends.

The funeral was held from his late home Monday afternoon, Rev. William Taylor and Dr. J. F. Locke officiating. A. G. Bigelow sang two selections, accompanied by Mrs. Fred Eldridge. The casket was draped with the flag and banked with a profusion of beautiful flowers.

Interment was in the new cemetery at Brookfield Center, the bearers being brothers in the Masonic fraternity—A. R. Rumney, H. H. Fullam, A. G. Bigelow and J. W. Yaw.

Those from out of town to attend the funeral were Mr. Clark's nephew, Clark Wilcox of North Attleboro, Mass., Mrs. Edith Kenyon and Mr. and Mrs. T. Babizon of Hartford, Conn.

It's Wonderful How Resinol Stops Itching

To those who have endured for years the itching torments of eczema or other such skin eruptions, the relief that the first use of Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap usually gives is incredible. After all the suffering they have endured and all the useless treatments they have spent good money for, they cannot believe anything so simple, mild and inexpensive can stop the itching and burning INSTANTLY! And they find it still more wonderful that the improvement is permanent and that Resinol really drives away the eruption completely in a very short time. Perhaps there is a pleasant surprise like this in store for you. Resinol Ointment and Resinol Soap are sold by all druggists.

A Good Soap For Baby Skin
A good baby soap should contain soothing, healing properties to prevent the rashes and chafings to which babies are liable. That is why so many physicians recommend Resinol Soap.
